

Series Logline

Suzan Lewis, daughter of world famous comedian Jerry Lewis, invites viewers into the comfort of her very own 'home' to share memories of life and loves with her childhood friends, and other famous celebrities.

It's a new twist on the tried-and-true talk-show format, as Suzan Lewis interviews her childhood friends, the children of other famous people, and many of today's top personalities, as they share some of their most private - and entertaining - memories of what it's like to 'grow up famous'.

And nobody knows that better than Suzan. Her unique, easy-going style is sure to bring out some hidden secrets - and the very best from those she interviews.

But CELEBRITY HOUSEGUEST is more than just a cutting-edge talk show. It's also a variety

Song & Dance - Many of Suzan's guests are as talented as their parents were, so when viewers tune in they'll witness their talent first hand - as the likes of Deana Martin (Dean's daughter), Gary Lewis (her brother), Nancy and Frank Jr. (Frank Sinatra's kids), Liza Minnelli, Leslie Bogart, Kyle Eastwood and many others join Suzan on stage to not only share their family stories, but join her in a never to be forgotten, informal, live musical performance.

Everyday Heroes - Each program will feature an individual who has performed an exceptional random act of kindness for a complete stranger, without thought of reward or repayment. The show's audience will nominate this everyday hero, and their story will be featured in an inspirational interview conducted during the program.

Regular People - In this segment, everyday people share their valuable life's experience to help make things just a little easier for the viewer. Example: a garage owner gives valuable tips on how to find an honest mechanic, spot a dishonest one, and how to do small car repairs yourself... or a chef demonstrating how to bake the perfect cheesecake. Suzan's Corner - On the Pilot show, for example, Suzan Lewis will ask her viewers to share their favorite 'Jerry Lewis stories'. On future programs, she will do the same with her guests, having the famous offspring disclose interesting facts and memories of their celebrated parents.

Comedy Showcase - Like her father did a generation ago, Suzan will also give a completely unknown comedian their '15 minutes of fame'. She'll create a national soapbox on which to showcase a new and untested comedy talent on each show.

Series Demographics & Sponsorship Possibilities

CELEBRITY HOUSEGUEST is a show about bringing back memories of those great entertainment legends - and introducing their legacy to a whole new generation.

By definition, it is aimed at primarily a highbrow, sophisticated urban audience.

Because of her genetic heritage, Suzan grew up surrounded by High Society and Celebrities, was enrolled at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts at age 2, and spent much of her earlier life with classmates from the Lycee Francais, such as Leslie Bogart (daughter of Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall) and others at the 'Dakota' in New York, honing her interview skills during hours of conversation with their parents and friends.

By 1969, Suzan was introduced to High Society at New York's prestigious Debutante Ball by White House presidential hostess Perle Mesta. There she represented the State of New York.

It is therefore no coincidence that CELEBRITY HOUSEGUEST originates from Suzan's own attractive, well-decorated, comfortable 'living room' overlooking the city (it may actually be taped in a studio representing her home).

The original title and show concept began as a way to increase the sluggish sales of high-end luxury condos, where a local Real Estate company pledged the use of one of their 5 million + unsold properties for Suzan to live in - and the show to be taped in - giving the owner's a showcase of their property on TV.

By stressing its 'snob-appeal', we hope to increase the series value and desirability to the high-end viewer - leading to potential sponsorship and support from the Real Estate and Mortgage markets, building manufacturers and discretionary consumer products.

Pilot

Series potential - The pilot show may feature Deana Martin, daughter of the legendary Dean Martin, one half of the classic American comedy team of Martin & Lewis. Deana will join Suzie in a duet of their father's most memorable songs

On another show, Suzan's oldest brother Gary (of Gary Lewis and the Playboys) will co-host and reunite his popular 60s era rock and roll band. On the same show, as an unexpected surprise, their father, Jerry Lewis, may also show up.

Suzan Lewis

Suzan is an accomplished author, singer and raconteur, the eldest daughter of the legendary comedian, filmmaker and humanitarian Jerry Lewis.

Not surprisingly, Suzan shares an inborn stage presence, an ease with people, and a likable manner with her famous dad.

Her amazing resemblance to him (as Howard Stern put it "She's a dead ringer for Jerry, she even has that "thing" in her chin") will not only attract millions of her father's worldwide fans to the show, but
