

TOP: Liliane Morin ('73);
MIDDLE: Gabrielle Lansner ('73);
BOTTOM: Winston Dutton ('73)

1973 Class Notes Archives

Yearbook photos: Class of '73 in Terminale: Click here

----- From December 2014 AALFNY Newsletter -----

● Liliane Morin wrote: "Bonjour tout le monde...This is my first submission, so just to bring everyone up to speed... Professionally, I started my career as a pediatric nurse at Northwestern's pediatric hospital in Chicago (Children's Memorial), after receiving my BSN from Columbia. After moving to the Bay Area in California in 1982, I chose a career in IT within the hospital setting, and after receiving a Master's degree in Health Care Administration from the University of San Francisco in 1993, I moved into Finance. I have been the Director of Financial Planning at multiple acute care hospitals in California since then, all of which were in the San Francisco Bay Area, except for a six-year period in Fresno.

In my personal life, I am married and currently living in the Sacramento area. We have no children, by choice, simply because I saw too many children with birth defects as a pediatric nurse and became very risk-averse. Instead, we are a household of dogs (all rescues), having three shelties and one collie (who thinks she is a sheltie). We also have two Dyson vacuum cleaners to help with all the fur! We are both very involved with NorCal Sheltie Rescue, a non-profit organization that is dedicated to re-homing Shetland Sheepdogs (shelties) who have lost their homes for a variety of reasons (relinquished to us, or who ended up in shelters). There is always at least one foster in our house. On two separate occasions, however, we had a total of seven dogs in our house, including our own. Thank goodness, it was for only one week each time.

We visited New York City in April 2013, which was a trip down memory lane for me. I know that our Lycée has moved, but visiting the old Lycée on 72nd street, and then going through Central Park from there, and seeing the boathouse and lake brought many smiles to my face. It was fun reliving those years and talking about all of our adventures. We are planning a trip to France in January, as my niece had her first baby, the first for that generation. Trips to Paris and Alsace, to see extended family, are taken every three years and we are due, so I am very much looking forward to the new year. Je vous souhaite tous une très bonne fin d'année !"

● Dominique Noel wrote: "I am living in Ridgewood New Jersey with my wife and teenager Alex. Sophie my daughter is at McGill. My brother Xavier Noel ['76] and I still run our import business (30 Years) --visit us at www.parisgourmet.com. I see Francois Gendron ['73] three times a year and will be celebrating his 60th birthday on November 29th. Best wishes for 2015 to the Lycée community."

Dr. Jean-Paul Janssens
('73)

● Dr. Christine (Altorffer) Galakhoff est médecin radiologue au centre Hospitalier Hôtel Dieu à Pont l'Abbé, France.

● Marie-France Vareilles wrote: "I joined National Industries for the Blind about 18 months ago after retiring from the Federal Government. The organization assists non-profit agencies located across the country to identify jobs for people who are blind or visually impaired. Our mission is to enhance opportunities for economic and personal independence as nearly 70% of persons who are blind are not employed. I live on the outskirts of Washington DC in Falls Church, Virginia. When not working, I enjoy traveling to discover new parts of the world. I would be happy to reconnect with my classmates." (Click here for more détails on Marie-France's activities)

● Elisabeth Ignacio-Pinto nous écrit: "Après 29 ans avec les Nations Unies au Sénégal (UNDP and WFP) comme Finance Associate, je suis à présent à la retraite. J'ai eu deux enfants qui m'ont donné trois petits-enfants sur le continent américain (Montréal et Washington)."

● Yves Cloarec shared this with us: "On December 4th, at the Goodwin-Ternbach Museum on Queens College campus, Yves Cloarec ('73) read from and signed copies of his book INSIDE MY OWN SKIN published in May 2014. It is a translation of Guillaume de Fonclare's DANS MA PEAU a personal narrative that won several literary prizes in France in 2010, a poignant and heartfelt account of one man's journey along the arc from despair to hope. You are invited to find out more about Yves' book and like its Facebook page. Yves currently teaches Writing, European Civilization and English Literature at City University of New York (CUNY)'s Queens College Campus. He is also working on several translation projects. One of these projects requires truly bilingual Franco-American or Amero-French people (in other words people like LFNY alumni) with a poetic and literary flair to contribute translations of either short stories or poems by an important but forgotten French Surrealist poet—Joë Bousquet. Please contact Yves for details if you think you might be interested in contributing.

Yves sends his best regards to former classmates, and to all LFNY alumni."

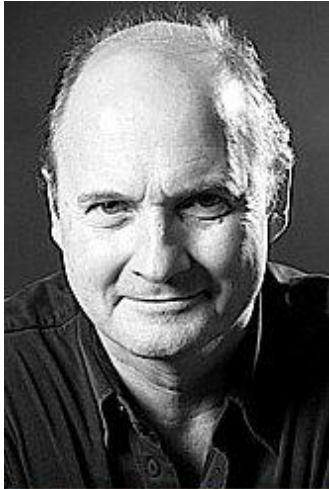

Editor's Note: "Cloarec was born in Martinique, French West Indies, and grew up speaking Creole, Spanish and French in the Caribbean and on three continents. He received his French Baccalauréat at the Lycée Français de New York. He holds a Bachelor's in Political Science and English from Columbia University and hopes the MFA degree he received last month will open doors to full-time university-level teaching or Teaching Artist opportunities in the U.S or Europe. Yves lives with his wife and children in Ridgewood, Queens....." (Queens College News Release)

TOP: Claude Blanc ('73);
BOTTOM: Blaise Galland ('73)

TOP: Jennifer Marre ('73);
BOTTOM: Anthony Blumka ('73)

TOP: John Lvoff ('73);
BOTTOM: Elisabeth Ignacio-Pinto ('73)

● “For over 30 years, Gabrielle Lansner has traveled between the worlds of dance, theater and film. Her creative work has crossed interdisciplinary boundaries, moving from pure dance works to dance/theater pieces to musical theater and film. In 1997, she formed gabrielle lansner & company and has created eight original full-length works for the company that have performed to critical acclaim: “Lansner has a gift for creating vivid dramatic landscapes out of an almost seamless merging of text and movement.” – (The New York Times) Lansner has recently shifted focus to filmmaking as a new way to create her work [.....] Her first short film “Dad” has been screened at NewFilmmakers Film Festival 2010 at the Anthology Film Archives/NY, the Baryshnikov Arts Center, The Newport Beach Film Festival and won the Award of Merit for Experimental Film from the Accolade Competition in La Jolla, CA.”

(<http://www.kickstarter.com/projects/1364710038/the-stronger-a-short-film>)

● Winston Dutton is General Manager and V.P. of Nick Rail Music and “was born in Manhattan, grew up in Malibu and spent his teen years in France. After moving back to California, he graduated Summa Cum Laude with a BA in Music Composition from UCLA. He plays guitar, bass and piano, and enjoys songwriting in his spare time. Winston worked in the commercial real estate and hospitality fields prior to re-connecting with the wonderful world of music in 1998 when he came to work for Nick Rail Music.”

(http://www.nickrailmusic.com/t-bio_winston_dutton.aspx)

● Dr. Jean-Paul Janssens est « Médecin-adjoint agrégé, Service de Pneumologie, Hôpital Cantonal de Genève, et responsable du Centre antituberculeux (activité ambulatoire du Service de Pneumologie), Service de Pneumologie, Hôpitaux Universitaires de Genève. Il a obtenu son Doctorat en médecine de la Faculté de Médecine, Université de Genève, en 1987. »

● Anthony Blumka “is a fourth generation dealer in Medieval and Renaissance works of art and sculpture. His great-grandfather started the family business in Vienna in the nineteenth century and his father, Leopold, moved the gallery to New York in 1939, and was later succeeded by Tony’s mother, Ruth Blumka. In 1997 Tony opened Blumka Gallery at its current location in Manhattan. The diverse range of gallery inventory features Medieval and Renaissance ivories, enamels, bronzes and stone and wood sculpture [.....] Tony Blumka is a Past President and Honorary member of the Art and Antique Dealers League of America, and is on the Board of Directors of the National Antique and Art Dealers Association of America. He participates in The European Fine Art Fair each spring in Maastricht, the annual Munich Highlights fair every autumn and the Biennale des Antiquaires, Paris. In addition, Blumka Gallery mounts a biennial exhibition in conjunction with Julius Böhler Kunsthandlung of Starnberg, Germany, “Collecting Treasures of the Past.”

(<http://www.blumkagallery.com/about.asp>)

----- From December 2012 AALFNY Newsletter -----

● Marie-France Vareilles wrote: "After working in New York, I have been in the Washington DC area for over

TOP: Marie-France Vareilles ('73);
BOTTOM: Philippe Caste ('73)

25 years. Most of it has been working as the General Manager in charge of the textile factories operating inside Federal Prisons. It's been interesting to run a business inside the Federal Government. I have a 24 year old son and live in Falls Church, Virginia, just outside Washington DC."

● Yves Cloarec wrote: "In addition to tending to the Information technology consulting firm he has headed since 1995, this past September, Yves Cloarec (LFNY 1966-1973) started teaching English at Queens College, a division of the City University of New York. Yves is also pursuing a Master of Fine Arts degree in Literary Translation and Applied Linguistics, and is constantly on the lookout for new and interesting pieces of literary or poetic interest and value to translate from the French into English. If any AALFNY members know of up-and-coming writers or poets who write in French and would like to be translated into English, please contact him at Yves.Cloarec@QC.CUNY.EDU. Best and warmest regards to all AALFNY for the holiday season."

● Pierre Poullain, sent us a poem -- L'Arc en ciel. (Go to Alumni Creative section of this newsletter) He wrote: "Je dédie cela à Mme. Halmoy [Prof. de Francais-Latin, années scolaires 1967-1970] et pour faire un bravo au fondamental American Wildlife Federation."

● Dominique Noel wrote: "Sandy was a hell of a storm! Hope all the tri-state residents are well. Paris Gourmet, the company my brother Xavier Noel ('76) and I operate in the Meadowlands came very close to flooding but we came out ok. I still reside in Ridgewood N.J., married with two kids. Sophie 17 is driving. Alex, 14, the king of the skateboard. I see Francois Gendron ('73) four times a year."

● Deborah (Lewis) Sutherland tells us that she "is very happy following in her parents' footsteps and teaching film and English in the Finger Lakes area."

● Beatrice Rhodes "has been a resident of Bedford, hamlet of Katonah, for 22 years. She is the mother of two, Katie and Eric. She has two dogs and a cat, all rescues! She has volunteered tirelessly in the community for the past 18 years; some of these volunteer positions have included the Northern Westchester Hospital Auxiliary, the Town of Bedford Meals on Wheels program; the Northern Westchester Swim Conference in the position of VP, and Caramoor Antique Show Volunteer Coordinator. Current volunteer positions include the Bedford Tree Advisory Board where she serves as a Board Member and Secretary. Her energy and outstanding organizational abilities have been channeled into the Bedford Democratic Committee with the mission of seeing good Democrats elected; she joined the committee in 2006, soon thereafter became a District Leader and was elected as Secretary on the Executive Committee in 2007. Her professional experience includes her current position as Office Manager of the Junior League of Northern Westchester, a position she will have held for ten years in the fall of 2011. In 2006 she received an Honorary Member Award for her outstanding commitment and years of valuable service to the League." (bedforddemocrats.wordpress.com)

● Nancy (Connaly) Zamboni "has a B.A. from Yale, where she received her basic art training, a B.F.A. in

TOP: Beatrice Rhodes ('73);
BOTTOM: Nancy (Connaly)
Zamboni ('73)

TOP: Virginia Cox ('73);
BOTTOM: Berthe Aké ('73)

painting from Boston University, and an M.F.A in painting from Queens College in New York. She teaches at Mercer County Community College, the Princeton Adult School, the Princeton YWCA, and at NCZ Studios, in the Trenton / Hamilton area of NJ. Locally, she has exhibited at The Gallery at MCCC, Artworks, and at Ellarslie, The Trenton City Museum, as well as other venues in New York and New England."

(<http://nczstudios.com/about/>)

- Albert B. Knapp, MD, FACP, AGAF is an academic board certified internist and gastroenterologist practicing in New York City. (Click here to access his website)

- Philippe Caste: « Gérant, PCA conseil. 17 ans d'expérience en Marketing et Développement puis Direction Générale de filiales de groupes ou de PME, en charge en particulier de projets importants de mutation ou de restructuration. Depuis 2001, manager de transition, conseil opérationnel et administrateur indépendant. »

(<http://fr.viadeo.com/fr/profile/philippe.caste>)

----- From December 2011 AALFNY newsletter -----

- Dana (Sloan) Scanlon wrote that she "has enjoyed another great year in real estate in the Washington DC metro area, having been voted One of the Best Realtors of 2012 by the Readers of Bethesda Magazine. Many of her clients are families whose children attend the Lycée Rochambeau in Bethesda, MD, which was attended by her two daughters. Her oldest daughter, Annie, just graduated from Concordia University in Montreal with a Bachelors in Sociology, and is teaching music and violin to young children. Youngest daughter Claire is in her second year in the College of Architecture and Planning at the University of Colorado at Boulder. Husband Leo is CISO at the National Archives. Dana's great pass-time continues to involve horses, and a Thoroughbred named Dover Glory was added to the family this year."

----- From November 2010 AALFNY newsletter -----

- Avis de Décès: David Alix passed away on May 4, 2010.

Diane (Ansberry) Rahardja ('73) sent us this message: "David's mother, Madame Alix, was my teacher and David's in 7emeB. She passed away, getting on the subway, from the Bronx on her way to school, holding David's hand. Unfortunately David has also passed away much too soon." (See In Memoriam section of this newsletter for more details.)

- Avis de Décès: According to the Hamptons.com newsletter, Jean Hertog passed away in July, 2009. (See In Memoriam section of this newsletter for more details)

- Diane Homo wrote that she "is well and alive in Paris." She enclosed pictures of "two of my last paintings."

TOP: Charles Masson ('73);
BOTTOM: Leslie (Shulman)
Hearne ('73)

TOP: Yves Cloarec ('73);
BOTTOM: Martha Solinger
('73)

Dana (Sloan) Scanlon ('73) at work and at play

● Christopher Yates wrote: "My professional affiliation has transitioned from the Netherlands-based Getronics to the Texas-based CompuCom. I continue to provide support to users who are not in the office, yet require access to the corporate environment remotely. Although, I am in the office daily, I may soon be working from a home office and I look forward to this new 'commute'."

● Dana Scanlon wrote: "Salut tout le monde.....My oldest daughter Annie passed her Bac exam at the Lycée Rochambeau in Bethesda MD, and is now in her senior year at Concordia University in Montreal. The Bac earned her a full year's credit, an excellent reward for all the hard work involved. Youngest daughter Claire left the Lycée Rochambeau after "college" to attend Academy of the Holy Cross in Kensington MD. She is now a freshman at University of Colorado at Boulder, College of Architecture & Planning. No Bac, but lots of AP courses which have earned her quite a few credits towards her college degree.

Fortunately, my real estate business continues to grow and is keeping me quite occupied in the empty nest. I continue to ride horses, a life-long passion occasionally interrupted in recent years by unfortunate accidents. But I am back in the saddle and even venturing back in the competition arena.

My husband Leo is still CISO at the National Archives, and enjoys his sailing when weather permits. And occasionally I am at his side on the boat, but only if there is no chance of stormy weather."

● "“Dinah Louda graduated from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques in Paris and she holds a Masters in Political Science from Harvard. She began her career as a journalist and was in particular from 1983 to 1991 the French correspondent for Business International (The Economist Group). In 1991, Dinah Louda joined the Victoire insurance group (now Aviva) as Director for European Communications. From 1993 to 2002 she served as Director of Communications for Abeille Assurances and was then appointed Director of Communications for Crédit Agricole Indosuez. In October 2004 Dinah Louda became Senior Vice President of Areva T&D (Transmission and Distribution) and Deputy Senior Vice President Communications of Areva. In April 2006, she was appointed Executive Vice President - Communications Director and member of the Executive Committee of Veolia Water.” (veoliawater.com)

● "Anne Fougeron has provided architectural services in the Bay Area for over 25 years. Currently, her firm's breadth of work is impressive, ranging from feasibility studies to building rehabilitation to new construction projects in the institutional, commercial, health-care and residential sectors. She is personally involved in all aspects of a project, from inception to completion, serving as the main client point-of-contact. As a result, her projects have frequently been recipients of local and national awards and have been featured in national and international publications..... She has taught architectural design to both undergraduate and graduate students at the University of California, Berkeley and at the California College of Arts."

<http://architectslist.com/cities/San-Francisco/firms/159-Fougeron-Architecture#more>)

TOP: Anne Fougeron ('73);
MIDDLE: Dominique Asper-Reginato ('73);
BOTTOM: Sophie Welsing ('73)

- "Dr. Alain D. Hyman received his BS at Lycee Francais and his MD at The University of Montpellier. [He] is Board Certified in Diagnostic Radiology with additional qualification in Neuroradiology specializing in Cross Sectional Imaging, particularly CT and MRI. Dr. Hyman is an Associate Clinical Professor of Radiology at The Mount Sinai School of Medicine [and] is a member of The Radiological Society of North America, and The New York State Radiological Society." (<http://nymiassociates.com/rad-hyman.html>)

Videos of LFNy alumni on the internet:

- Tom Teicholz interviews David Mamet
- A biographical video of Maria Teresa \(Mestre\), Grand Duchess of Luxembourg
- Charles Masson talks about his NYC restaurant La Grenouille
- Anne Fougeron discusses the design of a Planned Parenthood clinic

Diane Homo ('73) and two of her recent paintings ('Gabriel et Luna' & 'Le Lecteur')

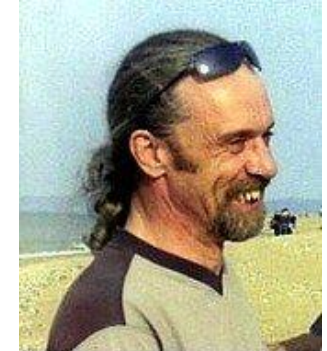

----- From December 2009 AALFNy newsletter -----

- Nicole Gotthelf wrote: "I had three Lycée encounters over the past week....Usually never have any Lycée encounters unless I am with Lycée folks.....The only one that I would write about is the last one: Was in Madison WI where I used to live and was having dinner on Friday after Thanksgiving at Magnus -- a Scandinavian Haute Cuisine restaurant. My dinner companion asked our waiter what did he do for Thanksgiving dinner. He said 'I went to an orphan dinner for 15 people.' I asked what he made, he said 125 escargots (with a French accent). I said, 'are you French?' He said, 'I am from Alsace.' I said, 'I speak French because I went to Lycée Français de NY.' He said, 'I went to Lycée Français de NY!' I said, 'When did you graduate?' He said '1992 and I went there since the little grades (1980-92)!' I said, 'I graduated 20 years earlier, I was there for 10 yrs, left after Premiere.' His mom worked at the Lycée and his dad was the former pastry chef at La Caravelle. My waiter's name was Mathieu Lorenzini ('94). Not only did he go to Lycée but he also went to Beloit College for a year -- from where I graduated! Small world." (Editor's note: Mathieu's mother was surveillante --Mme. Christine Lorenzini)

----- From January 2009 AALFNy Newsletter -----

- "Structural engineer and [Princeton] architecture professor Guy Nordenson has successfully collaborated with many of the leading architects practicing today. He recently gained attention for his work on an early version (pictured) of the design that was eventually adopted for the Freedom Tower, the building that will be the centerpiece of the rebuilt World Trade Center site." (Princeton Weekly Bulletin, <http://www.princeton.edu/pr/pwb/04/0905/5a.shtml>)

- Penelope (Lloyd) Barratt wrote: "Bonjour a tous ceux qui se souviennent de moi. It would be lovely to hear from you. I live in England now and look forward to catching up with anyone who was around in 1966 avec Madame Benzaken - Speciale III, and, of course, anyone else. Am married with two sons, one graduating from

Richard Saucet ('73) & Jody Cohen Robbins ('73)

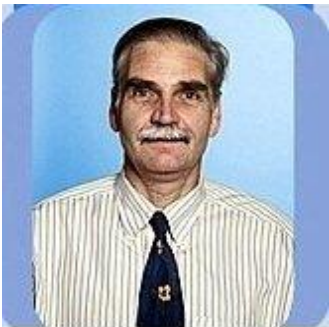

Nicole Gotthelf ('73) and Mathieu Lorenzini ('94)

Oxford University with Japanese and Mandarin and a second at Bristol University studying geography. If there is anyone out there from Accélération II du Lycée Français de Mexique 1964-1966, j'y étais aussi! Aussi bien que le Lycée Français de Londres (1967-1973). Let us hope for a better year than last...meanwhile best wishes!"

TOP: Dinah Louda ('73);
BOTTOM: Eric Sonn ('73)

Dr. Alain Hyman ('73)

● Blaise Galland told us that he has a website called L'espace virtuel alvéolaire

● Diane Homo wrote: "After the bac in 1973, I left with my parents for South Africa where my father was working with the French embassy. Then I had the opportunity to go to Paris and study law at "assas" university. After spending most of my life abroad, it has been quite a experience to discover the French people and their strange ways. But, eventually, I got used to them. Still, most of my friends are foreigners, even today. I would love to know what became of all the people I knew back when I was at the Lycée, in that charming place near Central Park. If anybody remembers me, let me know !"

----- From July 2008 AALFNY Newsletter -----

● Avis de Décès: In response to an inquiry, Dr. Anne Fernandez ('71) informed us that her brother, Yves (Fernandez) Arman ('73) "very unfortunately and sadly, died in car accident in Spain in 1989." (See In Memoriam section of this newsletter for further details)

● Deborah (Lewis) Sutherland wrote: "Hello. I am a high school English and film teacher in Western New York, married, no kids. Life has been good to me, and I'd like to think that I try to live each day with some measure of gratitude and joy. I would love to hear from my old classmates!"

● Jonathan Gregg wrote: "I have a new website for all my musical pursuits. Please visit it. Best regards to my old copains."

● Dr. Albert Knapp is Clinical Associate Professor at the NYU Medical Center's Department of Medicine (Gastroenterology). "Dr. Knapp is an academic Gastroenterologist and Hepatologist whose areas of expertise are advanced/therapeutic Endoscopy (Gastrosocopy, Enteroscopy, Colonoscopy) as well Hepatology. Dr. Knapp performs the majority of his endoscopic procedures in his office which is equipped with two state of the art endoscopy suites. Dr. Knapp's consultative Hepatology practice focuses on treatment of Hepatitis B and Hepatitis C. Dr. Knapp is a prolific medical writer and has authored over 20 major academic papers as well as a textbook on Gastroenterology. He has lectured on gastroenterological and hepatological topics all over the United States as well as in Europe. His other areas of interest include Health Care Policy formulation & analysis. He has served as a Science Advisor to numerous public officials including Senators Paul Tsongas (D/MA) & Bill Bradley (D/NJ) and has testified as an expert witness in front of several United States Senatorial and Congressional Committees." (NYU Medical Center, med.nyu.edu)

TOP: Nicole (Pujol) Franques ('73); MIDDLE: Jonathan Gregg ('73); BOTTOM: Dr. Albert Knapp ('73)

TOP: Jean-Louis Monfraix ('73) ; MIDDLE: Dana (Sloan) Scanlon ('73); BOTTOM: Eric Gotthelf ('75) & Gloria Tulliu ('73)

● "Nicole [Pujol] Franques spent her whole life on 51st Street in New York City, growing up and working in her father and family's French restaurants, most notably Rene Pujol. She and her husband, Claude, had a dream to leave his world as a French chef and create a new business together. Claude's Chocolate on Hypolita Street became their combined passion. Claude creates the majestic chocolates to perfection and Nicole runs their retail and wholesale operation. 'I get all my strength from my family; I've been so lucky in my life with loving parents, two beautiful and healthy children that I adore...and a very talented and loving husband. Respect is a very important part of my life so I treat everyone around me, from customers to friends and family, the way I want to be treated. I see a wonderful year ahead as Claude and I renew our energies and continue to build and face the future together.' " (FROM: SCENE Magazine - St. Augustine; Thu, May 3, 2007, WOMEN TO WATCH! by Leigh Cort; <http://www.claudeschocolate.com/news/article.php?aid=11>)

----- From December 2007 AALFNY Newsletter -----

● Nicole Gotthelf wrote: "I trained for my first marathon - the Chicago Marathon. Unfortunately they called the race. I had run 16 miles and had to walk the last 2.5 miles to Grant Park. I had a great cheering team - friends from New York and Chicago. The next week I joined friends from New York and completed the Greater Hartford Marathon in 5:55:07, meeting my goal of finishing under 6 hours."

● Dominique (Asper) Reginato wrote: "Hello, I just wanted to let you know that I'll be in New York from the 13th to the 18th of December - a short holiday with my husband. I'll be staying at Hotel Edison, and if anyone would like to have a reunion with an old lycée friend, just give me a call. I'd love to have news from former friends. Other than that, I'm still living in Geneva. My husband Franco, who is a physiotherapeute, has new professional plans for the future: He's studying to do acupuncture as an extra formation. I'm now retired from music teaching; after 27 years I felt a change was due. So I've also started a new formation in sign language (language for the deaf), the opposite from my former work, but it's fascinating. My two boys are now 23 and 20: one is in actng school and the other in business school, and they are both doing fine. Voila! Hope to hear from old friends. Bye for now."

● From Dominique Noel: "I am now living In Ridgewood N.J. Married with two children, Sophie (12) and Alex (9). My brother Xavier ('76) and I have been in the import and distribution of specialty food for 25 years. I have dinner with Francois Gendron ('73) in Connecticut 3 to 4 times a year. Next dinner will probably be end of January so give use a call."

● Tom Teicholz gave us permission to reprint his very touching letter to the Raoul Wallenberg foundation regarding the relationship between his father and Raoul Wallenberg. Click here read it.

● Francois Gendron wrote: " [Après le] BAC D '73, je suis allé à McGill (Montreal) ou je visais un 'Bachelor of Science in Biology', mais 4 mois (à peu pres) avant mon diplôme, j'ai eu un accident routier tres serieux (12

TOP: Tom Teicholz ('73);
BOTTOM: Dominique Noel ('73)

Decembre '75). Enfin tu le sais probablement! Mes Dadas sont les suivants:

1) M'occuper de ma femme (qui est une grande malade). 2) Enregistrer de la musique (mon équipement est semi-professionnel). Toutes musiques sont bonnes: Française, Rock Classique, Pop, Country, Rhythm & Blues etc... Pas de Rap! Du Hip-Hop oui, mais c'est d'un autre temps! OK, c'est tout l'espace que j'ai, à la prochaine!"

TOP to BOTTOM: Marc Bernstein ('73), Philippe Frydman ('73), Sophie (Poujol) Marchaud ('73) , Guy Nordenson ('73)

● Penelope (Lloyd) Barratt wrote: "I would like to say hello from England to those in Special III in 1967! We have two sons, one at Bristol University UK and one at Oxford, and I send best wishes to those who might remember me. I trust that you too will have a very happy Christmas and that 2008 will be a good year for you and your family."

● Jonathan Gregg informed us that he "is a musician and freelance editor in New York City. You can see and hear some of what he's been up to at his website."

----- From June 2007 AALFNY Newsletter -----

● Dana (Sloan) Scanlon wrote: "After 10 years of working on the marketing of French trade shows in the US, and managing projects such as USA Pavilions at the Paris Air Show, in 2007, a complete transition into residential real estate. Specialty: assisting French-speaking clients in their relocation to the Washington DC metro area. Married, two teenage daughters (Lycee Rochambeau in Bethesda), one horse and a dog! I have managed an occasional trip to New York for business over the years -- sorry to have missed the reunion at the Yates home. Anyone from class of '73 in the DC area?"

● Martha Solinger wrote: "I am recently divorced with a 12 year old son and live just outside of New York. I have been at Lehman Brothers for nearly 20 years and run the Litigation area of the Law Department there. We love to travel and are going on safari in Africa this summer."

● "Jean-Louis Monfraix bought his first 35mm camera while touring as lead guitarist for the "East Coast Brass" in 1978 and has been photographing his "view of life" ever since. Jean-Louis was born in Lavour, France, and raised in New York City, where he attended the Lycée Français de New York. His passion for photographing his "view of life" grew out of a boyhood fascination with the beauty of the natural world and the diversity of life on Earth. As a child, he could be seen running around the New York Botanical Gardens with a butterfly net, collecting specimens for his insect collection (and bee stings for his immune system). The name of Jean-Louis' photography business pays homage to his lifelong hero, the famous naturalist Charles Darwin, by quoting from the last sentence of the 1859 classic "On the Origin of Species", in which Darwin wrote: "There is grandeur in this view of life, ...". Indeed, Jean-Louis is a naturalist and biologist himself. He holds a Master's Degree in Zoology from the University of Florida and has taught biology as an adjunct professor at the American University in Washington, D.C., and at Santa Fe Community College in Gainesville, Florida. Jean-Louis' photographs have appeared on the covers of publications for several multi-organizational national conferences....." (From: Eastern Market.Net)

TOP: HRH Grand Duchess Maria Teresa (Mestre) ('73) ; BOTTOM: Christopher Yates

- "Tom Teicholz is a film producer in Los Angeles. Everywhere else, he's an author and journalist who has written for The New York Times Sunday Magazine, Interview, and The Forward. His website, TOMMYWOOD, is the recent first place winner of the LA PRESS CLUB AWARD and the SIMON ROCKOWER AWARD for entertainment criticism/column." (From TOMMYWOOD.com)

----- From December 2006 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Maria Teresa Mestre is the Grand Duchess of Luxembourg.

- Christopher Yates wrote: "It is always good to read of the Class of 73 goings on. And the reunion at my childhood home on May 31st was especially heartwarming for me. It was almost a fluke that I was able to attend mid week, since I live in the metropolitan Boston area. My New York ties continue to run deep, and I do manage an occasional jaunt into the Big Apple. I hope to hear from more of you in the months and years ahead."

- From Dominique (Asper) Reginato: "After more then 27 years of teaching at the international school of Geneva as a flute teacher, I've decided to take an early retirement. I travel a lot with my husband (Birmanie, Vietnam, Bali, Seychelles, Sri lanka, etc.) My eldest son Julien is 22 and is studying theater, my youngest son Raphael is 18 and is in a business school. We have a boat on the lake here in Geneva and we sail quite a bit. Life here in Switzerland is quite enjoyable and we feel very priviledged to live in such a nice environment. Love to have news from old class mates who may remember me."

- Odile (Roger) Bongi says that she would love to hear from any of her classmates who remember her under her maiden name of Odile Roger, and also asks if anyone knows the whereabouts of Astrid Radiguet.

- Nicole Gotthelf wrote: "I am now at the Center for Neighborhood Technology -- www.cnt.org. CNT works on sustainable urban issues and we are housed in the 13th LEED certified platinum building in the country."

- News of Scott Segal

----- From June 2005 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Jonathan Gregg wrote: "I have been living in NYC since 1981, working mostly as a freelance magazine editor and musician. My first self-produced CD got three and a half stars in Rolling Stone, along with other very nice reviews, back in '92; since then I have taken up the pedal steel guitar and gig frequently in NY. I am married for the second time, no kids, spend a lot of time in Connecticut with my wife, go back and forth between there

Blaise Galland ('73) and Annatina Miescher ('73)

and my place in NYC.

I don't stay in touch with my old classmates much, but not by choice. I would love to hear from my friends Debbie Lewis, Michel Amiel, Dana Sloan, Louis Foy, Anne Marie Backer, Sophie Gorek, Charles Masson, and many others.

Reading the list of the class of '73 I was amazed at how clearly I remembered everyone. I loved the Lycee, although by the time I left, it was time to go, and I would probably not have lasted the whole run. What a great time to have been a kid in New York."

----- From November 2004 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Tom Teicholz writes: "I live in Santa Monica, CA with my wife Amy and daughter Natasha (6). I am a journalist and have also worked in the film industry as an executive and a producer -- my niche being remaking French Films (so that Lycee education did come in handy!)"

----- From Winter 2003-2004 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- From Beatrice ("Bea") Mezei-Rhodes : «I actually registered on a whim. Looked at the (AALFNY) website at the urging of Myrna Ann (Cath) who left the lycée same year as me. Myrna is really the only lycée student I have kept in touch with. She lives in Vermont, is married with one child Michael. (My sister) Fabienne Mezei lives in Mill Valley (Marin County), CA, no husband, no children. I live in Katonah, in upper Westchester. I have two children, Katie who will be 15 in January and Eric who will be 13 next week. I am divorced. I have six pets, 3 dogs and 3 cats! I work part time as Office Manager for the Junior League of Northern Westchester."

- Guy Nordensen has been profiled in the NY Times Metro Section on December 11, 2003 for his work in the reconstruction efforts related to the collapse of the Twin Towers on 9/11/2001, in an article entitled "Public Lives: Behind a Graceful Spire, Science, Art and Passion." He also addressed Princeton University's School of Architecture during a commemorative assembly held on September 11, 2002. In it, he detailed steps he took to compile information crucial to the recovery efforts in the 9/11 aftermath.

----- From "Printemps 2002" LFNY Magazine -----

- Michael J.Amiel a un cabinet de psychiatrie,est marié et a deux enfants.

----- From March/April 2002 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Dominique (Asper) Reginato writes: "Always a lot of pleasure in reading about old friends... I read that Mark Luksberg '71 was looking for someone who knew him. Well, I remember Mark. If he reads this, I'm the girl with the long hair, my name was Dominique Asper (now Reginato). I hope he remembers me! I've been living in Geneva Switzerland for the past 30 years, I'm married, teaching music, and I have two boys also: Julien 17 and Raphael 14. If Mark wants to contact me he can do so by the Lycée Newsletter. I also wanted to inform you, that I've just come out with a new record that I made last summer, for Flute and guitar. It's music of the 20th century and it is called TEXTURES. If anyone is interested, he can contact me. Thanks for the great job you're doing with the newsletter."

- Albert Knapp writes: "I am an attending physician in Gastroenterology at the Lenox Hill hospital as well as professor of Medicine (gastroenterology) at NYU Medical School. My area of interest is gastrointestinal endoscopy and I have a very busy clinical practice. I am also involved with crafting healthcare policy and was an advisor to both the late Senator Paul Tsongas in 1992 and more recently with Senator Bill Bradley in 2000. My wife, Alice, is an art appraiser in private practice. "

----- From November/December 2001 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Dinah Louda writes: "I am married and have three children. After 10 years in journalism, I've been Communications Manager for a French insurance company called Abeille assurances, a unit of the UK group CGNU, since 1991."

----- From July/August 2001 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Debbie (Lewis) Sutherland writes: «To this day, I feel that I share a bond with anyone who went to the Lycée when I did. I did not have an easy time there, and yet I think back to those days with a great deal of fondness for many of my fellow classmates. However, I've got to admit that part of my goal as a teacher is to NOT do some of the things teachers did to me. I'd particularly like to know what happened to Dana and Bambi Sloan, Jonathan Gregg, Dinah Louda, Sophie Gorek, Virginia Cox, Diane Ansberry, and Scott Segal among others.»

- Albert Knapp writes: «Following many years of postgraduate training in Boston at the Brigham & Women's Hospital & Harvard Medical school, I returned to New York. I am professor of Gastroenterology at NYU Medical School and also attend at Lenox Hill Hospital. I divide my time between teaching as well as reviewing/writing for our major specialty journals, seeing patients, and have also been an advisor to both Senators Paul Tsongas and Bill Bradley on national healthcare issues and policy.»

- Jacques Ordner is an architect living and working in Ste Maxime, VAR for the past 20 years.

- Philippe Frydman is currently living on Kibbutz Ketura in Israel.

- Nicole Gotthelf works as a Major Gift Officer for the American Friends Service Committee, based out of Chicago. Prior to moving to Chicago in 1991, she lived in Madison, WI and served on the Madison City Council. Traveled over the years to Europe, Latin America, the former Soviet Union, Australia, and Southeast Asia. Crystal Stefanatos '73 joined her for part of the trip in Thailand. This summer she plans on going back to France and Corsica with two New York high school friends who are francophiles but not French speakers. Nicole keeps in touch with Gloria Tulliu, Marc Bernstein, Chantal '74 & Jean Philippe Clesca, Crystal Stefanatos, and Enid Siegel

- Liza Knapp is at Berkeley teaching Russian literature. Her husband teaches linguistics in the Slavic department and they have 2 boys - 13 and 11.

----- From February/March 2001 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Music lover François Gendron writes, "I have a wealth of recorded music (60's, 70's- '00's, and even some music from before that!) I used to transcribe digitalized music onto cassette, but am now able to "burn" my own CD's! (So fellow music lovers out there, attention! I have a database of 3,500 to 4,000 CD's). All genres included: Pop, Rock, Folk, Country, and French. Sorry, no Rap!"

----- From March 2000 AALFNY Newsletter -----

- Dominique Noel a deux enfants et réside à NYC.
- Enid Siegel is currently living in East Dummerston, Vermont.